

jWebSocket Certification

This certificate is issued to:
in recognition for his development of:

Victor Antonio Barzana Crespo Grizzly/GlassFish WebSocket Integration with jWebSocket (RFC 6455 compliant), a component of the jWebSocket open source realtime communication framework.

Alexander Schulze, founder of jWebSocket and head of the community, herewith certifies the quality and the successful integration of the component into the jWebSocket framework.

For this certification the following subjects were evaluated. The score ranges from 1 to 5 points, whereas 5 is reflecting the highest degree of quality and 1 the lowest.

Subject	Result
Standardization of the source code according to the jWebSocket coding standards.	4
Cleaning, organizing and structuring of the source code.	4
Functionality and integration of the source code into the jWebSocket framework environment.	4
Quality of the User Documentation to ensure comprehensibleness for the jWebSocket application users.	n/a
Quality of the Administrator Documentation to guarantee an appropriate installation and administration of the component.	3
Quality of the Developer Documentation to guarantee a future maintainability of the component.	4

Issued 10th of June 2012

Alexander Schulze
Founder and Head of jWebSocket